Dear friends,

During the month of February, we celebrate Valentine's Day. Guys, I intentionally put this sentence in as a reminder. Don't miss out on the opportunity to show your wife how much you love her. And I know I don't have to remind our women because they never forget this day. I love the symbol of the heart that is prevalent to celebrate Valentine's Day. The heart represents our love for the person we give our cards or gifts to. The heart also reminds us of the unfathomable love of God. When it comes to God it is important to remember that the miracle is not that you and I love God, but that God loves us.

One of my favorite authors is Dr. Alvin Rogness. So often the things he writes need to be shared again. This is the way I felt after reading "The Dangerous Question". Dr. Rogness writes: "Jesus does not say, "I will love you if you love me," or "I will love you if you keep my commandments." Even if we never give a thought to Him or to His commandments, He loves us still. Incredible as the fact is, we can't stop our Lord from loving us!

Facing this kind of love from the God who created and redeemed us, how is it possible for us to go our merry and indifferent ways, untouched and unchanged? More often than we would like to admit, that's precisely what we do. One would rather expect us to cry, "Lord, I love you! What can I do for you?"

Intuitively we know that there are hidden dangers in asking that question. The Lord has an answer for us, a very direct answer: "Keep my commandments." His commandments roam the whole range of life. The most comprehensive summary is simply, "Love one another as I have loved you." If we had ever thought to settle for a cozy, private time with God, we know that won't do. God brings with Him a large, needy family. In Luther's words, "God takes the love we give Him and fastens it on the neighbor."

And if we had ever hoped for a narrow definition of "neighbor," the Lord quickly disabuses us of that hope. The stranger is your neighbor; your enemy is your neighbor; the starving children of Asia and Africa are your neighbors. You may never know them; you may not like them; you may get no token of gratitude from them. No matter! Our Lord's command is to reach out to them.... And, in doing so, your life of self-concern will be greatly altered. But you will be on the threshold of a great discovery-----that it really is more blessed to give than to receive, better to suffer than to cause suffering, better to distribute than to accumulate. You will lose your life to God and to others only to find it again."

Love in Christ,
Pastor Gordy
